Looking for a globally-focused course this summer? Check out the selection below!

ARCH 3500  Sustainable Communities & Global Environment
FREN 3584  Introduction to French Cinema
GSGS 2010  Global Commerce in Culture
GSGS 2559  Critical Conceptions of the Global
GSVS 3110  Sustainable Communities
HIAF 2001  Early African History
HIEA 3559  Industrial Pollution and Society in East Asia
HIEU 3152  British Empire & Modern World
HILA 3559  Citizenship, Exile, and Migration in Latin America
HIST 3281  Genocide
HIST 3559  History of the Atlantic World
HIUS 3172  America in Vietnam
MDST 3105  Latina/o Media Studies
PLCP 2600  Rise & Fall of the Soviet Union
PLCP 3500  Globalization and European Politics
PLIR 3500  Introduction to International Political Economy
PLPT 3500  Women and Gender in Western Political Thought

REL 3200  Buddhism
REL 1040  Intro to Eastern Religious Traditions
RELI 2024  Jewish-Muslim Relations
RELI 2080  Global Islam
RUTR 2500  Topics in Russian Literature
SLAV 2360  Dracula
STS 2500  Science and Technology in Social and Global Context
WGS 3340  Transnational Feminism

Please note that this list of courses that the ISO and Summer Session has identified is merely a starting point! We encourage you to do your own exploring, too!

---

Summer Language Institute (SLI)

SUNDAY, JUNE 20 - FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 2021

The Summer Language Institute offers eight-week courses in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Latin, Russian, and Spanish. Students attend classes five days a week and up to seven a half hours a day. Listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills are developed in a student-centered environment.

Additional language offerings are available: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Korean, and Spanish.

For more information and a full list of Summer courses, visit summer.virginia.edu