BENEFITS OF AN INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

For students in Jewish Studies, an international experience can be an integral component to the discipline. Upon return from studying abroad, many students report that they are equipped with greater language proficiency, deeper knowledge and understanding of various cultures, as well as a broader, more global perspective that is often valued by employers.

ACADEMIC & TIMING CONSIDERATIONS

Planning ahead is key to finding a program that meets your academic and personal goals. All students wishing to study abroad must have a GPA of 2.5 or higher, depending on the program. Depending on the program you enroll in, you may receive either direct or transfer credit for the courses you complete abroad. Up to six credits from abroad may be counted toward the Jewish Studies major. The department will allow one course (three credits) to be counted toward the Jewish Studies minor. To obtain course approvals for major or minor credit, you need to meet with the director of undergraduate programs in Jewish Studies when applying to a program.
